The Honorable William B. Macomber, Jr.
Deputy Under Secretary for Administration
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bill:

I have just received notice of your most fair-minded decision with relation to the Interagency Map Procurement Program, and I want to send you this note to thank you for your consideration of all aspects of the problem in making your judgment.

This will allow the continuation of a most valuable program which benefits the entire intelligence community at relatively low cost and at the same time carries forward the principle of common service management with its attendant economies.

With warm personal regards,

Sincerely,

/s/ Bob
